

HERK'S meat ... THAT'S A TREAT TO EAT!

U.S.D.A. CHOICE STEER BEEF

ROUND or CLUB STEAK

79¢ lb

FRESH EASTERN BAR-B-Q

SPARE RIBS

79¢ lb

1 to 3 lb. Average

FRESH EASTERN PORK SHOULDER

ROAST 29¢ lb

FRESH JAR

OYSTERS 49¢ Jar

OUR OWN COUNTRY STYLE

PORK SAUSAGE 39¢ lb

KINGAN'S EASTERN SLICED

BACON

45¢ lb

Bar-B-Q

HOT BAR-B-Q HOT

FREEZER BEEF

U. S. D. A. GOOD and CHOICE FULL BEEF SIDES — FORES and HINDQUARTERS — HAND CUT, WRAPPED, MARKED and QUICK FROZEN FOR YOUR FREEZER ON ORDER.

We Now Have Barbecued Chicken, Hot and Ruddy To Go — Also On Order.

PHONE DA. 6-0543

Chambers To Honor Rosecrans

Forty years of progress will be celebrated on October 25 by the Harbor District Chambers of Commerce at a banquet paying special tribute to its pioneer president William S. Rosecrans.

Rosecrans, whose name graces many streets, parks, and buildings in Southern California will address the group, outlining the early history of the organization and the part it played in the development of the Los Angeles Harbor area.

Among those who will pay their respects to the group and its first president are Congressman Cecil King, Assemblymen Vincent Thomas and Clayton Dills, County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn and Los Angeles City Council President John S. Gibson.

Chairman of the Board of Supervisors Burton W. Chace will present the organization with a plaque in recognition of the "outstanding services" rendered to the Harbor area.

Advance reservations indicate that delegations in attendance will include representatives from Chambers of Commerce in Carson, Dominguez, San Pedro, Wilmington, Redondo Beach, Hermosa Beach, Manhattan Beach, Lomita, Harbor City, Gardena, Lawndale, Southside, Southwest, Hawthorne, Long Beach, Compton, Bellflower, Lynwood.

The 40th anniversary celebration will be hosted by the Gardena Valley Chamber of Commerce at 6:30 p.m. at the Western club, 15516 South Western avenue, Gardena. Gardena Mayor Thomas K. Ware will head the reception committee.

The huge 40-candle birthday cake will be cut by Harbor District president Llewelyn O. Griffiths and past president Mrs. Gertrude Austin.

Charles Welton, secretary-manager of the Gardena Chamber will act as master of ceremonies.

Training For Xmas Jobs Told

Students at El Camino college wishing to take a two week course in retail store training in preparation for Christmas holiday jobs may enroll in the class October 15. Dr. William H. Harless, director of instruction announced today.

Enrollment will coincide with the first day of the class in Commerce 1 at 2 p.m. Classes will be held on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 2-4 p.m., starting October 15 and ending on October 26.

Most retail stores in the local area will start interviewing students November 1 for Christmas vacation jobs.

Mrs. Vangelene Daken, who will instruct the class, commented, "Students will be helped in obtaining jobs, but each student must do his own interviewing."

"Each student will receive one unit of credit and a card indicating completion of the course, which will help him to secure the desired job," the instructor elaborated.

The total class time is twelve hours.

County Fair Winners Told

Judging of entries in the rabbit department at Los Angeles County Fair, revealed the following among winning exhibitors: D. C. White, 229 E. Carson St., Californian fur, first; J. Jay Elston, 211 E. Carson St., meat pen, third.

James L. Duroy, 22124 S. Moneta ave., New Zealand White senior buck, first, second; intermediate buck, first, second; junior buck, first, second, third; intermediate doe, first, second; senior doe, first, second; intermediate doe, first; junior doe, first, third; New Zealand white and red fur, third.

Luncheon Held For President Of PTA Group

A surprise luncheon in honor of Mrs. Frank Gorbet, newly elected president of Lomita Elementary PTA, was prepared by Mrs. William Hansen, outgoing president, at her home.

Members of the board presenting Mrs. Gorbet with appropriate gifts for her office were limited to 10¢ each. Among the gifts were such items as pencils, paper, ruler, whistle and aspirins. There were 23 attending.

Mrs. Hansen served spaghetti casserole, baked ham, blue pineapple slices with maraschino cherries, tossed green salad, topped off with homemade pumpkin pie with whipped cream and angel food cake with a cherry and cream frosting.

Membership Drive Set by PTA Council

"Invest in the Best" is this year's theme for the 259th place, PTA membership drive, beginning October 8.

Every student at 259th place, school will have the opportunity of riding in a space ship (via the membership poster) to outer space, if their room goes over the 100% membership mark.

The Parent Teachers association needs everyone, and especially fathers, to belong and participate, to promote the welfare of children in the home, school, church and community.

PTA Council Aids Women Prisoners

A two-fold welfare project aimed at helping underprivileged children and rehabilitating women prisoners at Terminal Island jail will occupy members of the Lomita-San Pedro Council during November.

Mrs. A. C. Akerson, child welfare chairman, informed the group at the last meeting that members will be asked to collect scraps of trim and material so that women prisoners will be able to make doll clothes and stuffed toys for underprivileged children.

Mrs. Walter Talley, program chairman, introduced Frank Gorbet, who spoke to the group on "Being Informed on Parliamentary Procedure."

Reports by various chairmen, and presidents who also introduced the principals of their respective schools which are as follows: Bandini, Barton Hill, Cabrillo—Channel Heights, Fifteenth st., Halldale, Harbor city, Leland st., Lomita, Point Fern, Seventh st., 259th place, 223rd st., and White Point.

The next council meeting will be held at 259th pl. school on November 13, at 10 a.m.

Community Chest Holds Briefing Class

Harbor City-Lomita still maintains its first place lead in the race to obtain total volunteer organization for the annual Community Chest appeal.

Currently in possession of the Ira Kaye Trophy, which is awarded for the first city to obtain its 100 per cent quota, top volunteer Chest leaders in the local area are setting a fast pace in an effort to retain the perpetual trophy.

Palos Verdes, a close contender, is in second place with 77.65 per cent.

Rolling Hills, third, 59.37 per cent; Gardena, fourth, 37.88 per cent; San Pedro, fifth, 34.70 per cent; Wilmington, sixth, 32.99 per cent, and Torrance, 22.20 per cent.

Bingo Club Gives Birthday Party For Mrs. Nelson

The Happy Hour Bingo club held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Clara Gipe, 2490 Cypress st., in Lomita.

Highlight of the meeting was the surprise party on Mrs. Lillian Nelson for her birthday when the members presented her with a rhinestone necklace.

Members present were Mrs. Jessie McCormick, Rosy Shepherd, Floella Whitacre, Stelma Norris, Carrie Gype, the honored guest, Mrs. Lillian Nelson and the hostess, Mrs. Clara Gipe.

The decoration was a beautiful birthday cake, which was later served as refreshments.

PTA Group To Discuss Health Center

The October meeting of the 186th st., school PTA will be held in the school auditorium on Thursday, October 11, at 1 p.m.

Of interest to all who have toured the 10th District Health center will be the color slides of its many outstanding features. The pictures will be explained and narrated by Mrs. Steve Byers of the Los Angeles 10th District.

'BAKE SALE'

The Women's Auxiliary to the Trallerettes are having a "bake sale" at the Central Market in Lomita on October 13.

CLASSIFIED ADS present a parade of values every day in the year. Anything can be sold through Want Ads. Dial FA. 8-2345 and parade your goods before the TORRANCE PRESS audience.

Women of Distinction

Dr. Phillis Wright, Harbor General Hospital Associate Professor of Pediatrics Division, congratulates Mrs. Harvey S. Mudd, winner of the Gold Key Award, presented at the 15th annual breakfast rally by the Women's Committee of Welfare Federation, Los Angeles area. Mrs. Mudd is past national president of the Girl Scouts, a Community Chest supported agency; a Chest volunteer worker for the past decade, and currently prexy of the Los Angeles Opera Guild. Dr. Wright, also honored at the rally, was among ten named "Women of Tomorrow."

Stanich To View Casabamen

Basketball Mentor George Stanich gets first views of the forthcoming El Camino college basketball squad Monday, when official practice for the '56-'57 casaba season opens.

In this, his second year at the helm, the former UCLA athlete, expects to greet upwards of 50 prospects for the 1956 cage squad. The Warriors will open their season at home on November 23 against an alumni contingent.

Returning from last year's squad which placed third in the race for the Metropolitan Conference flag, will be all-conference center Wally Turkells, Roy Reubel, voted last season's most valuable player; Dave Higgins, Ron Cummings, Tony Castano and Vic Hecker.

Through graduation Stanich lost Phil Graf, Don Stewart, and Mickey Viridin. Both starting guards from last year's hoopers, Charlie Davis and Frank Consiglio, will also be missing. The former is serving a two-year stint with the armed services while the latter failed to enroll this semester.

Hopefuls from the local high schools include Tom Hoff, Ron Alexander and Dean Wise, Inglewood; Ray Clayton and Bill Bender, Hawthorne; John Bernards, Mira Costa; Dennis Carroll, Serra; Doug Barnes, Leuzinger; Ronnie Bulcoe, Loyola and Tike Cerravias from Redondo.

Tony Navarro, former all-City prep star from Manual Arts, Frank Ellis and Don Jacobs comprise the service returnees who should bolster Stanich's stock this season.

PTA Buzzin' Around for New Members

A bee hive will be used for charting the Harbor City School PTA membership drive, Mrs. Ray Cheek, membership chairman, announced.

Books, which will later be put in the school library, will be presented to the highest and lowest grade rooms signing the most members. The children who bring in two or more memberships will get to see Monty Montana at the school on Friday, October 26, at 11 a.m.

Twenty-three members of Harbor City School PTA board met in the school cafeteria for their monthly meeting with Mrs. Leland Van Buren, president in charge.

Mrs. Waldo Allred's resignation as Community Chest chairman was accepted, and the following chairmen were ratified: Mrs. Don Furu, Founders' Day, and Mrs. M. Andreotti, life membership.

Parents were also urged to purchase Milk Bowl tickets for the Narbonne at South Gate game on Friday, October 19, at 3 p.m. Seventy-five per cent of the proceeds goes for child welfare and 25 per cent to be divided with the two schools playing. Students will be excused from class to attend the game.

Mrs. Avis Creech, principal, announced that B1, A1 and a

EC Water Warriors To Tangle

El Camino college's water polo team will take to the road to tackle Orange Coast for its first scheduled game of the regular season, October 10 at 3:15 p.m.

Orange Coast was victorious on its trip North when the Coastmen engaged the Arden Hills Club in the tournament held at Sacramento Junior College. Taking first place, the team had much help from left forward, Bob Herman and center forward, Bob Boardway.

Coach Joe Krowal's Orange men lost to Fullerton in the ninth round of play at last week's 11th annual water polo tournament held at the El Camino pools.

The water Warriors of El Camino tied up Long Beach in the last round of the latter tourney but were edged out in the last quarter of play, 14-4.

Chick McIlroy was high point man for the Warriors and also top man of tournament with 25 goals. Jim Kelsey of the Long Beach squad was second with a total of 18.

With the tourney getting under way, Mt. San Antonio drew a bye in the first round of play, Long Beach beat Orange Coast 15-4 in the second round and El Camino engaged Fullerton coming out on top 17-6.

Orange Coast drew a bye going into the second day of tourney play with Fullerton swamping Los Angeles City College 26-1 in the second round.

El Camino won over Santa Monica 10-1 with Long Beach winning over Mt. Sac. 18-3 in the eighth game of the tourney. Orange Coast beat Fullerton 11-3 in the semi-finals. Top seeded Long Beach then won the final game of the tourney by dropping the Warriors.

Coach Harry Perry's squad has three men retiring from last year's team, Bob Zehntner, Howard Terry and Mike Cashon.

Chick McIlroy and Brett Lake from El Segundo High school will add to Perry's team this season along with its goalie team captain Wally Gillies.

Lomita Fire Station Bids Called for

Plans and specifications and the advertising of bids for Fire Station 6 in Lomita were approved Tuesday by County Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

The new fire station, designed by Francis Gentry, Long Beach architect, will be located at 25517 South Narbonne avenue. The new fire station will replace the present fire station now located at 2240 Lomita boulevard. The new station, Chace declared, is being constructed in order that the fire protection services for the Lomita area may be greatly expanded.

few B2's will have to go on half day sessions, with the return of 78 students from Channel Heights.